EMERALD HILLS WELCOMES NEW EDO JAPAN RESTAURANT

Fresh Japanese Teppan-style cooking and sushi now available at its third Sherwood Park location

Sherwood Park, Alberta – September 26, 2012 – Edo Japan is opening the doors to its third Sherwood Park location in the welcoming neighbourhood of Emerald Hills on Thursday, September 27 at 10 a.m.

Edo Japan has been providing customers with unique and fresh menu items for more than 30 years. Known for its signature dishes including Sukiyaki Beef and Teriyaki Chicken, both topped off with their signature Teriyaki sauce, the newest location is sure to satisfy the palettes of Edo Japan lovers. In addition to menu favourites, Edo Japan offers diverse meal choices including yakisoba noodles, Udon Soup, fresh sushi and other delicious creations.

The new Emerald Hills location will be franchisee Cecil Chen and Alice Su's third Edo Japan Restaurant in Sherwood Park, adding to the Wye Road and the Sherwood Park Mall locations.

"As the community continues to thrive, Sherwood Park provides the perfect setting for another Edo Japan location," said Chen. "We look forward to serving the great neighbourhood of Emerald Hills and providing residents with unique and fresh food in our fast and casual dining atmosphere."

"With Edo Japan's continued success in the area, there has been a growing desire to continue expanding throughout Western Canada," said President and CEO, Tom Donaldson. "We strongly believe our high quality and affordable menu will continue to please the appetites of Edo Japan customers."

The new restaurant is located at 215, 5000 Emerald Drive. For more information please visit <http://www.edojapan.com>.
