

GRANDE PRAIRIE WELCOMES NEWEST EDO JAPAN RESTAURANT

Popular fast-casual restaurant opens the doors to first street front location

Grande Prairie, Alberta – November 8, 2012 - Edo Japan, an Alberta-based company known for its fresh and healthy Teppan-style cooking, will open the doors to its first street front restaurant today at 10 a.m.

A leader in the fast-casual restaurant industry, Edo Japan has been providing customers with hot, fast and delicious food for more than 30 years. The new street front restaurant will offers guests the option to stay and enjoy their meal or take their favorite menu item to go.

“Edo Japan is the best kept secret in Japanese cuisine,” said President and CEO, Tom Donaldson. “We are proud to serve up delicious meals with quality ingredients, satisfying the appetites of even the most skeptical diners.”

The new restaurant will serve up signature dishes including Sukiyaki Beef and Teriyaki Chicken, both topped off with the time-honoured Teriyaki sauce. In addition, menu favorites such as yakisoba noodles, Udon Soup, fresh sushi, spring rolls and much more will be available.

The restaurant is located at #108, 10712 80 Avenue.
